MEMORANDUM

The parties' Shared Parenting Plan entered on or about November 13, 2006 regarding their minor child, Madeleine ("Maddie") Entine, provides, in part:

"Article XIII. Mediation. Should any major differences of opinion regarding the best interest of the child arise, the parties shall attempt to resolve such differences through mediation with the Center of Resolution of Disputes for at least three sessions, unless agreed otherwise by the parties. The parties shall equally divide the expense for such mediation."

Mother's Motion to Modify Shared Parenting Plan or in the Alternative To Terminate Shared Parenting Plan seeks to modify the provisions of a Shared Parenting Plan as they relate to Father's parenting time ("...his parenting time with Maddie should be reduced."); and argues that the Shared Parenting Plan "...is no longer in Maddie's best interest for many reasons..."

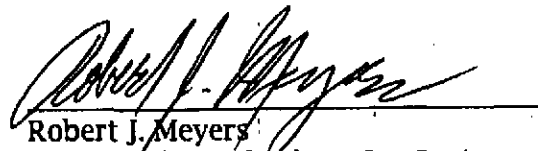

Father believes that the Shared Parenting Plan continues to be in the best interest of Maddie, and believes it would not only be contrary to her best interests, but emotionally damaging to Maddie, for Father's parenting time to be reduced or altered.

The parties currently have major differences of opinion regarding the best interests of the child. Since the Shared Parenting Plan requires that the parties attend at least three sessions of mediation with the Center for Resolution of Disputes, and the parties have not done so, this Court should dismiss Mother's Motion to Modify the Shared Parenting Plan or in the Alternative to Terminate it. This Court must refer the parties to mediation in accordance with the provisions of the Shared Parenting Plan.

Not until the parties have complied with the mandatory mediation provisions of the Shared Parenting Plan, should Mother be permitted to proceed with such a motion.

Wherefore, for the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that the Court dismiss Mother's motion until such time as the parties have attended at least three mediation sessions with the Center for Resolution of Disputes as required by the parties Shared Parenting Plan. Further, Father seeks reimbursement of his costs and expenses incurred herein including attorneys' fees.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert J. Meyers
Attorney for Defendant, Jon Entine

GREGORY HARTMANN
CLERK OF COURTS
HAMILTON COUNTY, OH

Now comes Plaintiff, Ellen L. Turner, by and through Counsel, who hereby moves this Court for an Order to Modify the parties' Shared Parenting Plan or, in the alternative should the Court find Shared Parenting is not in the child's best interests, to Terminate Shared Parenting and Designate Plaintiff the Sole Residential Parent and Legal Custodian of Madeleine ("Maddie") Entine, born May 22, 1998. Plaintiff further moves this Court for an Entry Appointing a Guardian Ad Litem on behalf of Maddie. Plaintiff states that these requests are necessary to protect the best interests of the minor child.

The parties entered into a Shared Parenting Plan on or about November 30, 2005. Plaintiff believes that this Plan is no longer in Maddie's best interests for many reasons, all of which will be further adduced at a full hearing on this Motion. By way of example, Plaintiff has repeatedly been denied phone access to Maddie. Most recently, Defendant kept Maddie from Plaintiff when Maddie was scheduled to be with Plaintiff. When Plaintiff tried to take custody of Maddie, she was assaulted by Defendant. This occurred in the presence of Maddie, who has been psychologically traumatized as a result. Maddie is afraid of Defendant. Since November 30, 2005, Defendant's ability to communicate and cooperate with Plaintiff has deteriorated. He has become increasingly and exceedingly hostile and belligerent. Plaintiff fears that Defendant's mental health has deteriorated to the extent that his parenting time with Maddie should be reduced.

In the event the Court determines that Shared Parenting is not in Maddie's best interests, Plaintiff further moves this Court for an Order to Designate her the Sole Residential Parent and Legal Custodian of Maddie. Further, Plaintiff requests an Order Appointing a Guardian Ad Litem to represent Maddie in this matter. Maddie has been under the care of a child psychologist, Dr. Vivian Fliman, for the past several years. Maddie recently witnessed the altercation between her parents which led to the granting of a Civil Protection Order. Maddie is emotionally and psychologically fragile. In order to adequately protect Maddie's interests, a Guardian Ad Litem is requested

WHEREFORE, for all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests an Order Modifying Shared Parenting, or in the alternative, an Order Terminating Shared Parenting and Designating Plaintiff the Sole Residential Parent and Legal Custodian, an Order Appointing a Guardian Ad Litem and any and all other relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

D71983799

Now comes Plaintiff, Ellen L. Turner, by and through Counsel, who hereby verifies that the facts set forth in the Motion for Contempt herein are true and accurate. Plaintiff moves this Court for an Order finding Defendant in Contempt of Court for violating the terms of the parties' Shared Parenting Plan commencing at 3 p.m. on Thursday, February 1, 2007 and continuing until intervention by the Indian Hill Rangers on Friday, February 2, 2007. Defendant violated the terms of the Shared Parenting Plan ("Plan") by refusing to relinquish physical custody of our minor child, Madeleine Entine.

Under the terms of the parties' Plan, Maddie is to reside with Plaintiff on Wednesday and Thursday overnight. Plaintiff gave Defendant notice that she would be out of town on Wednesday night but returning to Cincinnati on Thursday. Defendant agreed to exercise his right of first refusal and Madeleine spent Wednesday night with Defendant. Madeleine did not go to school on Thursday so Madeleine's child care provider went to pick her up from Defendant's residence at 3:00 p.m. Thursday which would have been the conclusion of school time. Defendant did not answer his door.

In fact, Defendant told Plaintiff he would not release Madeleine to her child care provider. He said he would be willing to drop Maddie off at Plaintiff's residence upon her return. Plaintiff said she would come and pick her up. However, when Plaintiff arrived, Defendant did not answer his door.

Plaintiff returned to Defendant's residence the following morning to take custody of Madeleine. Defendant began questioning Plaintiff's plans for the day with Madeleine and refused to release her to Plaintiff until she disclosed her plans. Despite the fact that Plaintiff told Defendant she had no plans but that Madeleine would be with her until 3 p.m. (when Defendant was to resume custody), he refused to allow Madeleine to leave the house.

Defendant became very belligerent and aggressive toward Plaintiff. He pushed her, shoved her, gauged her eye, choked her and pushed her into the porch column. He slammed the door and refused to release Madeleine. Plaintiff finally called the Indian Hill Rangers who escorted Madeleine from the home. A separate Civil Protection Order is being filed as a result of this incident.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks a finding of Contempt for this blatant violation of the parties' Shared Parenting Plan. She seeks a purge order requiring Defendant to attend anger management classes, an award of her attorneys fees and any and all other relief as may be deemed just and proper by this Court.

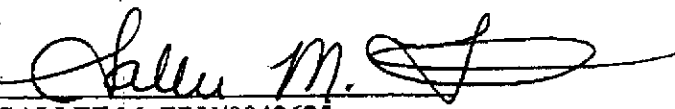

I, Ellen L. Turner, hereby verify that the facts contained in this Motion are true and accurate. Sworn to and subscribe in my presence this 6th day of February, 2007

I know of no person not a party to the proceeding who has physical custody of the child or claims to be a parent of the child who is designated the residential parent and legal custodian of the child or to have parenting time rights with respect to the child or any person other than a parent of the child who has custody or visitation rights with respect to the child.

8. I HAVE NOT been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any criminal offense involving any act that resulted in a child being an abused or neglected child nor have I been the perpetrator of the abusive or neglectful act that was the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused or neglected child.

If you or your spouse have ever been a party to any civil or criminal case or investigation concerning child abuse, child neglect or domestic violence, state the case name(s), case number(s), date(s) and nature of the case(s) DV0700143 domestic violence pending, filed 2/6/2007.

ELLEN TURNER	:	CASE NO. DRO500131
	:	FILE NO. E233969
Plaintiff	:	CSEA NO.
Vs.	:	JUDGE PANIOTO
	:	MAGISTRATE THEILE
JON ENTINE	:
	:	AGREED SHARED
Defendant	:	PARENTING PLAN

The parties hereto, ELLEN TURNER, Plaintiff, hereinafter referred to as "Mother" and JON ENTINE, Defendant, hereinafter referred to as "Father", are the parents of MADELEINE ENTINE, born May 22, 1998.

The parties have no other issue, living or deceased, and have not adopted any child.

This plan is submitted to the Court pursuant to Ohio Revised Code §3109.04 (D) (1) (a) (i). The parties jointly submit this Shared Parenting Plan and ask the Court to adopt the terms as an Order of the Court.

Both parents have given considerable thought to the question of parental rights and responsibilities, and the manner in which the best interests of the minor child may be served. In furtherance of these interests, they have concluded that the parents should share the legal responsibility of the care and upbringing of the minor child.

Both parents love Madeleine ("Maddie") and want to support each other in parenting her. Maddie should have access to both of her parents and should be comfortable with each of them. With the implementation of this Shared Parenting Plan, Maddie will know that both of her parents are going to work together to assure her well-being.

In the exercise of their shared rights and responsibilities, the parents shall discuss and cooperate on matters pertaining to health, education, and general welfare, acknowledging that the general well-being of the minor child is of paramount importance to them. And, therefore, both parents shall abide by the spirit of this Shared Parenting Plan as well as its written provisions insofar as the welfare of the minor child is concerned.

At all times during the term of this Plan regardless of their marital status and place of residence, each parent will make a dedicated and sincere effort to foster love and respect between the minor child and the other parent. The parties shall cooperate fully in implementing a relationship with the child that will give such child the maximum feeling of security that may be possible. In order to assure parenting on a successful basis, neither party will make derogatory comments about the other, nor shall either party allow family members or friends to undermine the loving relationship between each parent and the child. The parties shall treat one another in a civil manner and shall refrain from behavior, which is humiliating, embarrassing or demeaning. Neither parent will do anything that may estrange the minor child from the other or hamper the natural development of her affection for the other. Through cooperation and the use of this Plan, the parents shall adopt and follow a harmonious policy for the upbringing of the minor child.

Now, therefore, looking to the best interests of the child, acknowledging that each parent has the ability to provide guidance, concern and a proper home life for the minor child, the parties hereby agree to allocate the parental rights and responsibilities as specifically set forth in the following provisions:

ARTICLE I. PHYSICAL LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

A. Each parent shall be designated the residential parent and legal custodian of the parties' minor child, MADELEINE ENTINE, born May 22, 1998, regardless of where the child is physically located or with whom the child is residing at a particular time, as specified in this Order. For purposes of this Plan, Mother's residence shall be 7719 Shawnee Run Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45243 and Father's residence shall be 6255 S. Clippinger Drive, Cincinnati, Ohio 45243.

B. The parents agree that the following schedule of parenting time is presently in the best interest of the child.

The parents will alternate weekends with Maddie, beginning on Friday at the conclusion of the school day, day care or camp, or at 8:30 a.m. if it is a non-school/camp day and continuing to Monday at the commencement of the school day, day care or camp, or to 8:30 a.m. if there is no school, day care or camp.

The Monday – Thursday parenting time with Maddie shall be fixed on a one-week schedule that alternates each school year. For the 2005-2006 school year and extending through the summer break, Maddie shall reside with Mother from Monday commencing at the conclusion of the school day, day care or camp, or at 8:30 a.m. if Maddie had spent the weekend with Father and it is a non-school/camp day, and continuing to Wednesday at the commencement of the school day, day care or camp, or at 8:30 a.m. if it is a non-school/camp day. This schedule shall commence the first week of January, 2006 (January 2, 2006).

Maddie shall reside with Father from Wednesday commencing at the conclusion of the school day, day care or camp, or at ~~5:30 p.m.~~ ^{8:30 a.m. SEPT. ONE 2006} if it is a non-school/camp day and continuing to Friday at the commencement of the school day, day care or camp, or at 8:30 a.m. if it is a non-school/camp day.

The Monday – Thursday schedule will be reversed for the 2006 – 2007 school year and 2007 summer break (Father will have Monday – Tuesday and Mother will have Wednesday – Thursday), and so on.

C. Unless otherwise noted herein, the parent with whom Maddie is residing shall provide transportation at the commencement of parenting time and the other parent, who then becomes the parent with whom Maddie is residing, shall provide transportation at the conclusion of that period, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties. Most transitions will occur at school, day care or camp. If none of those apply during the designated transition times, then transitions will occur at home. Each parent shall be responsible to transport Maddie to her scheduled activities during his or her parenting time. The parties will not utilize a third party with whom their child is not familiar to provide transportation unless otherwise agreed upon.

D. Mother and Father shall use their best efforts to enhance and encourage the respect, love and affection of the minor child toward each party.

E. Exclusive of school hours, in the event either party is going to be away from Maddie during his or her scheduled parenting time for an overnight, the away parent must offer the other parent the right of first refusal to spend this time with Maddie. If the other parent is not able to spend this time with Maddie, the parent in residence (but away overnight) shall provide alternate childcare. The childcare provider overseeing Maddie overnight shall be responsible and at least 21 years of age. As soon as the parent in residence is aware of the need to be away overnight from Maddie, the parent shall immediately notify the other parent.

F. Mother shall be responsible for child care arrangements during her parenting time with Maddie and Father shall be responsible for child care arrangements during his parenting time with Maddie. All child-care providers must be over the age of fourteen, responsible and at least seventeen years of age with a valid driver's license and proof of insurance if they are providing transportation for Maddie. Mother shall pay for her child-care provider(s) and Father shall pay for his child-care provider(s).

If alternative child-care is needed for Maddie due to an emergency, illness, snow-day, teacher in service day, or the like, during any of the above times, the parent with whom Maddie is residing in the morning shall be responsible for providing the same until the end of that day at the normal transition time. During days on which alternative child care is necessary, the parent with whom Maddie is residing will first offer the other parent the opportunity to provide child-care responsibilities for that day. If alternative child care is necessary, the parent with whom Maddie is residing will immediately by phone inform the other parent who will be providing that care and all relevant contact information.

Each party shall be entitled to access any day care center that is, or that may in the future be attended by the child and to which the other parent legally is provided access. The day care center shall permit the other parent of the child to have access to the day care center under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the one parent. Either party to the day care center shall provide a copy of this order. This does not include private, in-home childcare, however.

Each parent will provide a bedroom for Maddie separate from the parent's room.

Maddie shall be free to bring her clothes and belongings between the parents' homes at her discretion without interference by either parent.

G. Any time Maddie is left in the care of a third party by either parent, that third party shall be given parents' cell phone numbers, home phone numbers and addresses for contact information in the event of an emergency. The third party shall be instructed to contact both parents in the event of an emergency and the first parent to reach Maddie shall respond to the emergency, regardless of which parent is scheduled to be "in residence" with Maddie.

H. Both parties shall have daily access to the minor child by telephone when she is with the other party. This shall be a phone call made first to the parent's home and then to the parent's cell phone if there is no answer on the house phone between the hours of 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., except during periods of vacation when the phone contact time shall be more flexible. If Maddie is not available at the time of the call, the parent with whom Maddie is residing will ensure that the call will be returned the same evening to the number designated on the message. Maddie shall be encouraged to initiate other phone contact to discuss important activities or events. The parents shall refrain from calling the other on their cell phones ^{SF EX} or during work hours unless it is a medical emergency. QIS SH

I. Each party shall keep the other party informed of all names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all professionals, schools, religious, or other institutions with which the child is associated or by whom being treated, and each party shall always provide the other's name, address, and telephone number as the child's parent to all such professionals, schools, religious, and other institutions so that any written record of the child shall contain each party's name, address, and telephone number as parent, and no other in such capacity. Instructions shall be given that both parents receive all notices and have access to all records.

J. Each party shall be entitled to access to student activities relating to the child and to which the other parent legally is provided access. The keeper of any record that is related to the child and to which one parent legally is provided access shall permit the other parent of the child to have access to the record under the same terms and conditions under which access is provided to the one parent. Either party shall provide a copy of this order to the child's schools.

ARTICLE II: EXTENDED PARENTING TIME; HOLIDAYS; ACTIVITIES

A. Each parent shall be entitled to up to two (2) full weeks of extended parenting time during the summer break, which may be taken consecutively. Full weeks commence on Friday after school or day care, or at 8:30 a.m. if it is non-school day and continue to Monday at the commencement of the school day, day care or camp or 8:30 a.m. if it is a non-school day.

B. The parties shall equally divide Maddie's Winter Break as follows. Mother will have Maddie every year from December 24th at noon until December 25th at 3:30 p.m. In the odd-numbered years commencing in 2007 and thereafter, Father will have parenting time with Maddie commencing after school on the last day of school and continuing until December 24th at noon. Mother will then have parenting time with Maddie commencing on December 24th at noon and continuing for the same number of days Father had parenting time at the beginning of the Winter Break. The remaining days, if any, shall be shared equally until the return to school. Except for the transition times on December 24th and December 25th, all other transition times during Winter Break shall be 5:00 p.m. In the event the first half of Winter Break up to December 24th contains more nights than the second half of Winter Break, which ends on the morning of the return to school, the days shall be balanced such that Mother recoups any extra days at the beginning of Winter Break (i.e., on the last day of school). In the event the Winter Break consists of an odd number of days, then the last day prior to the return to school shall belong to the parent who would otherwise be entitled to regular parenting time with Maddie. In the even-numbered years commencing in 2006 and thereafter, Mother will have parenting time with Maddie commencing on the last day of school and continuing until December 25th at 3:30 p.m. Father will then have parenting time with Maddie commencing at 3:30 p.m. on December 25th and continuing for the same number of days Mother had parenting time with Maddie. The remaining days, if any, shall be equally shared. The same rules set forth above if there are an odd number of days or an uneven number of days for the first and second half of Winter Break apply herein. In other words, if the first half of Winter Break up to December 25th is longer than the second half of Winter Break which begins on December 25th and ends on the return to school, then Father will recoup day(s) at the beginning of Winter Break. By way of example only, assume Winter Break in 2006 commences on December 15th and ends on January 2nd. This means there are 18 overnights available during this period. Mother has the first half of Winter Break in 2006. However, the second half of Winter Break is shorter than the first half by two days. To equalize the Winter Break, Father would recoup this time by having Maddie for one overnight at the beginning of Winter Break on December 15. Thus, Maddie would be with Father on December 15th from after school until December 16th at 5 p.m. (one night). She would then be with Mother from December 16th until December 25th at 3:30 p.m. (9 nights). She would transition back to Father on December 25th 3:30 p.m. and continuing until the return to school on January 2nd (for 8 nights). By way of further example, assume Winter Break in 2007 commences on December 21st and ends on January 2nd. Father has the first half in 2007, ending on December 24th at noon, which is shorter than the second half. Maddie would thus be with Father from December 21st until December 24th and again from December 30th until the return to school. Mother would have Maddie from December 24th until December 30th. In the event the Winter Break consists of an odd number of nights, the last night of Winter Break will fall to the parent who would have otherwise been entitled to regular parenting time with Maddie on that night.

No special provision will be made for Hanukkah if it falls during this period or New Year's Eve and Day; rather, the above agreed upon Winter Break schedule will apply. If either or both of the first or last night of Hanukkah falls outside of the Winter Break schedule set forth above, then Father shall be entitled to parenting time on either or both of those nights with Maddie every year. Both the first and last nights of Hanukkah shall commence at the conclusion of school (or 3:00 p.m. if a non-school day) and continue until the return to school the next day or until 8:30 a.m. if it is a non-school day.

C. In addition to the two (2) weeks of extended time as set forth in Article II A. above, in 2006, because Maddie will be attending CCDS, Maddie has two weeks vacation for Spring Break. For this year, Mother will be granted that first week, commencing on Friday after school and concluding on Saturday at 9:00 p.m. Father will have the second week, commencing at 9:00 p.m. Saturday and continuing until school resumes. If Maddie should remain at CCDS in subsequent years or a school with a two week Spring Break, the parties shall continue to share the break as defined herein. Mother will have the first week in even numbered years and the Father in odd numbered years. In subsequent years, if Maddie attends public school, Maddie may only have one week of Spring Break. The right to schedule the one week break will rotate between parents each year. Spring Break will commence on the Friday after school and extend until school resumes. The Mother will have the right beginning in even years and the Father in odd years.

D. To facilitate consistency in Maddie's schedule, one parent will be designated the primary scheduler each summer: the Father in odd years and the Mother in even years. After discussion and consultation with the other parent, (but with the primary scheduler making the final determination), the primary scheduler will be entitled to schedule no more than two (2) activities (summer activities are defined as lasting for one week or more) for up to five (5) weeks of the summer of that parent's choosing, beginning with the first full week without school in June. Those weeks can be scheduled consecutively to accommodate an extended camp experience or, if two one week activities are chosen, the weeks can be scheduled during the summer at the discretion of that parent, taking into consideration the scheduled summer vacations. If the July 4th holiday period falls on a week designated by the other parent as a vacation week, that holiday will go to the parent on vacation. The primary scheduler must submit that schedule by April 1. The other parent will then schedule up to two activities of his/her choosing during the remaining weeks of the summer. The parent who is not the primary scheduler will have until March 1 to designate his or her vacation weeks. If no designation is made by March 1, the first parent to advise in writing of his/her scheduled weeks will be guaranteed those dates. Vacation date selections and activity changes may be made up to 30 days prior to taking the extended period so long as they do not conflict with already scheduled activities or vacations. If either parent wishes to place Maddie in additional activities that do not conflict with the other parent's parenting time, he or she may do so.

E. Extended parenting time taken during regular parenting time that does not conflict with the other parent's regular parenting time does not count against the two weeks of extended parenting time allotted each summer. However, those days may only be exercised on days when Maddie does not have school, camp, or a scheduled activity. By way of example, if Father takes Maddie to Florida on his regularly scheduled parenting time, leaving on a Thursday morning on which Maddie does not have school and has no scheduled weekend activity, and returning for exchange time on Monday, this is not counted against the allotted two weeks.

F. When either parent is traveling out-of-town with Maddie, an email itinerary shall be provided to the non-traveling parent, including, but not limited to, dates of travel, airline flight numbers, departure and arrival times, destination, specific location, address and telephone number, name(s) of any persons who will be supervising Maddie and their telephone contact number(s). For travel of five days or more, the itinerary shall be provided at least thirty (30) days prior to departure. For travel of less than five days, the itinerary shall be provided as soon as arrangements are made.

G. It is in Maddie's best interests that she has consistency in her schedule. To facilitate this, one parent will be designated the primary scheduler of Maddie's activities during each school year. For 2005-2006 Father will have that responsibility. Mother will have that responsibility for 2006-2007, and so on. After discussion and consultation with the other parent (but with the primary scheduler making the final determination), the primary scheduler will have the right to select one activity for Maddie during the fall, winter and spring. The other parent will then have the right to select an activity that does not conflict with the activity selected by the primary scheduler. Both parents shall take Maddie to these two scheduled activities during his or her parenting time, including weekends. If either parent wishes to place Maddie in additional activities that do not conflict with the other parent's scheduled parenting time, he or she may do so. Parents shall pay for the activity selected by them except for piano, which both parents shall support and share equally in the cost as long as Maddie is at CCDS where it is taught in school. If any activity requires equipment or special clothes, regardless of which parent scheduled the activity, the equipment or special clothes shall travel between households and will always be returned to the parent who purchased the equipment or special clothing when Maddie next returns to that parent's home. Both parents acknowledge that the completion of homework is also a daily activity which will require appropriate time and effort by Maddie.

H. The parties shall follow the holiday schedule of parenting time set forth pursuant to the Allocation of Parental Rights and Responsibilities Parenting Schedule for Hamilton County Court of Domestic Relations ("Parenting Schedule"), attached hereto as Exhibit "A", and incorporated herein, except:

Christmas: Article II B. applies.

New Year's: Article II B. applies, following the Winter Break schedule

July 4th: Follows schedule unless day falls during vacation time as noted in Article II A.

Thanksgiving: Begins Tuesday after school if Maddie is attending CCDS or a school that closes for the holiday on Tuesday; otherwise, begins Wednesday at the conclusion of school and ending Monday morning with the commencement of school. Mother has this time in even-numbered years and Father in odd-numbered years.

Easter Weekend: Friday beginning after school or at 3:00 p.m. if there is no school and ending Monday morning before school; Maddie shall be with Mother every year; except in 2012 and 2015 when Passover conflicts and the Easter weekend is modified, as set forth below.

Passover: 1st night beginning after school or at 3:00 p.m. if there is no school and ending at 5:00 p.m. the following day; Maddie shall be with Father every year, noting the following times

Father will have Maddie over Mother's Easter weekend as follows:

2012: Passover begins Friday, April 6 at 3:00 p.m. (or conclusion of school if a school day) and ends the following day at 5:00 p.m.

2015: Passover begins Friday, April 3 at 3:00 p.m. (or the conclusion of school if a school day) and ends the following day at 5:00 p.m.

2nd night of Passover: no special provision made; follow regular schedule.

Rosh Hashanah: Beginning after school or at 3:00 p.m. if there is no school and ending at 7:00 p.m. the following day: Maddie shall be with Father every year.

Yom Kippur: Beginning after school or at 3:00 p.m. if there is no school and ending at 7:00 p.m. the following day: Maddie shall be with Father every year.

I. Except as noted in this agreement, or in the event of a conflict, the following is the order of precedence for either parent's time with the child:

1st – Holidays, except for July 4th if it is taken as part of extended time

2nd – Extended periods

3rd – Weekly regular parenting time

ARTICLE III. SCHOOL PLACEMENT AND RELIGIOUS TRAINING

A. Maddie will attend Cincinnati Country Day School (CCDS) for the 2005-2006 school year. She may continue to attend CCDS thereafter, but not beyond fifth grade, and subject to the review process identified herein. School placement decisions shall be made by the parties in consultation with Maddie's therapist, Dr. Vivian Fliman. Maddie may continue to attend CCDS through fifth grade or she may attend public school in either parent's residence district. By sixth grade or earlier, it is the parent's intention for Maddie to attend public school. The parents will meet together with Dr. Fliman no later than March 15th each year to discuss whether it would be adverse to Maddie's emotional health and development to switch schools. If the parties cannot agree by March 25th, Dr. Fliman can make that decision for that year only, reviewing school placement on an annual basis thereafter through the fifth grade. Should Maddie continue to attend CCDS through fifth grade, her tuition shall be paid by Mother. When Maddie attends public school, Maddie will attend public school in the school district of the parent whose high school has the highest rate of college placement, unless the parents agree otherwise. In reviewing high school college placement, the comparison shall be made only as to the actual school Maddie would be attending (e.g., compare only Walnut Hills if that is the school Maddie would attend within the Cincinnati School District). Maddie's school is a parental decision, and as such, both parties agree to refrain from lobbying on this issue with their minor child. Both parties agree to fully support whatever final decision is made.

B. Both parents may expose Maddie to his or her faith during their parenting time. Neither parent shall engage in any type of behavior that will discourage Maddie from attending the other parent's church or synagogue, or dissuade her from engaging in any activity sponsored by the other parent's church or synagogue during that parent's parenting time.

ARTICLE IV. HEALTH CARE/CHILD SUPPORT, ETC.

A. The parties shall obtain adequate medical care insurance coverage for Maddie and shall equally share the expense until there is no longer a parental duty to provide child support or until such time as either parent obtains coverage as a benefit of employment. In the event medical insurance is available to either party as a benefit of employment, that party shall obtain the same as soon as it becomes available.

B. The parties shall exchange all information regarding said medical care coverage, including but not limited to cards, brochures, pamphlets, or other written and oral information available to them. The parties shall equally share all uncovered medical, dental and mental health costs. The parties shall exchange/reconcile the out of pocket health care costs and other medical receipts, once a year, on or about January 31 each year. Reimbursement shall occur within 30 days of the exchange.

C. Mother and Father shall consult and provide for the access for medical care providers consistent with maximum insurance coverage.

D. Each parent shall have access to all health records of the child. All major decisions regarding the child's medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, psychological, psychiatric, pharmaceutical drugs and hospital, or physical care, attention or treatment shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon provided there is no emergency. For routine appointments, the parties shall alternate taking responsibility for Maddie's care. Mother shall be responsible for routine dental care (i.e., teeth cleanings) in odd-numbered years and Father shall be responsible for the same in even-numbered years. Father shall be responsible for routine medical care (i.e., physicals and well-visits) in even-numbered years and Mother shall be responsible for the same in odd-numbered years. The parent in charge of the routine dental and medical care shall notify the other parent of all scheduled appointments within four (4) hours of scheduling them. The other parent is free to attend all scheduled appointments. Maddie's current medical care provider, Dr. Bernardon, shall remain the same, unless otherwise agreed by the parties or if a change is necessary due to insurance coverage. Maddie's dentist shall be Dr. Jackson, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. Neither parent may change these providers, unless both parties agree otherwise. Dr. Fliman shall continue to oversee Maddie's mental health, unless both parties agree otherwise. Mother shall oversee Maddie's gynecological care, and will advise Father of the results of each exam.

E. If Maddie becomes ill or injured during the time that she is with either party, that parent shall immediately notify the other and give the other party the details of such illness or injury. Elective surgery shall only be performed if both parties agree. In the event of an illness or emergency, the parent who at the time of the illness or emergency has the physical care or physical contact with the child requiring immediate care, attention or treatment shall, where necessary, provide for same, and then shall immediately and reasonably notify the other parent of the cause of such illness or emergency (i.e., within one hour of the emergency/illness), even if Maddie's illness or injury does not require her to be taken to an emergency room or doctor. Regardless of which parent is in residence with Maddie at the time, if Maddie becomes ill or injured when she is with neither parent (for example, at school), the first parent to reach Maddie shall obtain the necessary treatment and shall notify the other immediately and give the other party the details of such illness or injury.

F. In the event a child's illness requires medical attention by a physician, the parent with whom the child is then residing shall promptly notify the other parent. Elective surgery shall only be performed after consultation with the other parent.

ARTICLE V. DEPENDENCY EXEMPTIONS: CHILD SUPPORT

A. Except as otherwise agreed or ordered by the Court, each parent shall be responsible for Maddie's needs and other expenses while in his/her care.

B. Child support and the dependency exemptions have not been resolved by the parties at this time and remain subject to review by the Court.

C. All payments shall be made through the Division of Child Support in the Ohio Department of Jobs and Families, plus requisite processing charge. All payments in satisfaction of said obligation which are not made through the Division of Child Support in the Ohio Department of Jobs and Families shall be deemed gifts.

Notwithstanding section 3109.01 of the Revised Code, the parental duty of support to children, including the duty of a parent to pay support pursuant to a child support order, shall continue beyond the age of majority as long as the child continuously attends on a full-time basis any recognized and accredited high school or a court issued child support order provides that the duty of support continues beyond the age of majority. ARTICLE VI. DISCIPLINE OF CHILD

The parties shall consult on all major discipline matters, recognizing that it would be in the best interest of the child to maintain uniform standards of discipline regardless of which parent is in residence with child. Therefore, the parties agree to consult with each other with respect to the disciplining of the child, should a major problem arise.

ARTICLE VII. DECISION MAKING

As with activity scheduling and sharing of information regarding Maddie, the parties together shall participate in all major decisions affecting the welfare and best interest of their minor child. Each party shall be responsible for the day-to-day decisions concerning the minor child during the period of time that the minor child is in residence with that parent. Major decisions shall only be made after consideration between the parents.

ARTICLE VIII. PASSPORT

Mother shall hold Maddie's passport and birth certificate in even numbered years and Father in odd-numbered years. Both parties shall cooperate in exchanging the passport as needed for travel, including, but not limited to, signing any necessary forms or affidavits to allow for out-of-country travel.

ARTICLE IX. CUSTODIAL ACCOUNT

Maddie's current custodial account at Wachovia Securities shall be placed into trust with both parties as co-trustees. The funds may only be used for college expenses for Maddie (tuition, room, board, books and fees). If the funds have not been exhausted for college expenses as defined herein for Maddie, or there is more money in the account than necessary to fund college, the funds will be retained in the trust fund to which Maddie will have access when she turns 25. Each co-trustee will receive statements as to the trust fund and the parties shall enter into a Trust Agreement to effectuate this provision.

ARTICLE X. COLLEGE

The parties recognize the value and desirability of making available to Maddie a post-high school education. To the extent Maddie desires to obtain such education, the parties agree to first utilize funds from her custodial account identified above to pay cost of tuition, room and board, books and fees for Maddie to attend four (4) years of vocational or undergraduate school to be completed within five (5) years of graduation from high school. After the funds from Maddie's custodial account have been exhausted, the parties shall divide equally the college educational expenses for Maddie, including, but not limited to tuition, room and board, books and fees, at a cost not to exceed the prevailing rate for an Ohio resident attending Ohio State University.

ARTICLE XI. CHANGE OF RESIDENCE

Neither parent may permanently remove the child from Hamilton County, Ohio and establish residence for her in another jurisdiction without a Court order or an agreement signed by both parties and approved by the Court. Both parents shall notify the Court of any intent to relocate and shall provide the Court with a new residence address promptly. Notice of relocation forms are available in the Court of Domestic Relations Docket Clerk's Office.

ARTICLE XII. NO CONVICTION

The parties hereby state that neither party has been convicted of an offense or adjudicated to be a perpetrator of an offense that resulted in a child being an abused or neglected child and neither party has been convicted of domestic violence or other assault against a family or a household member.

ARTICLE XIII. MEDIATION

Should any major differences of opinion regarding the best interest of the child arise, the parties shall attempt to resolve such differences through mediation with the Center for Resolution of Disputes for at least three sessions, unless agreed otherwise by the parties. The parties shall equally divide the expense for such mediation.

ARTICLE XIV. MODIFICATION

The Court shall retain exclusive and continuing jurisdiction on all issues relating to the minor child. However, this Shared Parenting Plan shall not be altered, changed or modified, except by written agreement of the parties and as approved by the Hamilton County Domestic Relations Court upon journalization of the appropriate entry, or by order of this Court.

ARTICLE XV. AGREEMENT TO COOPERATE; FOSTER LOVING RELATIONSHIP

The parties shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible in the upbringing of their child so that she shall not be the subject of friction and that the relationship with both parties shall be harmonious and respectful.

In the event of Mother's premature death, Father agrees to foster a loving relationship between Maddie and her maternal grandparents and other extended family members.

In the event of Father's premature death, Mother agrees to foster a loving relationship between Maddie and her paternal family members.

Basic Principles: Twelve and Teenage Years

- i. Parents should respect a teenager's need to spend time with peers and in organized activities, and less time with each parent, especially during weekends and summer holidays.
 - ii. Quality of time is more important than a rigid schedule. Flexibility in scheduling is necessary. When possible, it is preferable to consider the teenager's wishes as long as the parents agree.
- The non-residential parent shall have parenting time as follows:

E. 12 to 18 years:

Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 5:30 pm until 8:30 pm

A rotating four week schedule as follows:

Week 1-Friday 6:00 pm until Saturday at 6:00 pm

Week 2-Saturday 6:00 pm until Sunday at 6:00 pm

Week 3-Friday 6:00 pm until Sunday at 6:00 pm

B. When a child reaches the age of two, the non-residential parent shall be entitled to four weeks of additional time each year. After the age of five, two weeks may be taken consecutively. This time may be exercised during the summer, the child(ren)'s spring break from school (every other year) or at any other appropriate time during the year. This time may also be exercised during the child(ren)'s school break at Christmas (every other year), but under no circumstances shall the additional extended time commence before December 26 and continue past 6:00 pm on December 31. For children ages two to five, said four week extended time may be taken in one week increments. Under the age of two there will be no extended periods.

C. The residential parent shall be entitled to two weeks of consecutive time each year.

D. Extended periods of time are to be arranged within seven days from the time the parents' vacation schedules are posted by their employers. Each parent shall notify the other parent in writing of the times desired for these extended periods no later than 7 days prior to the exercise of extended period. Where there is a conflict between parents as to vacation schedules, the schedule of the parent who first gives written notice to the other parent shall prevail.

E. In the event of a conflict, the following is the order of precedence: 1st Holidays; 2nd Extended periods; 3rd Weekends; and 4th Midweek days.
